ROGERS ARENA

Owned and operated by Canucks Sports & Entertainment (CSE), Rogers Arena is home to the Vancouver Canucks of the National Hockey League and is one of the most active and versatile multi-purpose sports and entertainment venues in North America.

Since opening on September 19, 1995 with a sold-out show by Bryan Adams, Rogers Arena has welcomed more than 26 million visitors, playing host to more than 96 sporting and entertainment events each year. Through the support of passionate Canucks fans, Rogers Arena boasts a 485 consecutive game sell-out streak entering the 2014-15 season. The streak began November 14, 2002.

Rogers Arena (formerly known as GM Place) has hosted several world-renowned events in its history including ice hockey during the 2010 Winter Olympics from February 13–28, where it was rebranded as Canada Hockey Place. Of historical note, Queen Elizabeth II dropped the puck in a ceremonial face-off prior to an NHL exhibition game between San Jose and Vancouver on October 6, 2002.

Rogers Arena was distinguished with the Standing Ovation Award in the Sports & Entertainment category from the BC Rehabilitation Foundation in 2006. The arena was also a founding member of the Green Sports Alliance along with a number of professional sports teams based in the Pacific Northwest. This alliance has since grown to over 230 sports teams from 20 different sports leagues.

Former tenants include the Vancouver Grizzlies of the NBA (1995–2001), Vancouver Ravens of the NLL (2001–2004) and Vancouver Voodoo of the RHI (1996).

NEW HOSPITALITY DIVISION

Rogers Arena redefines the customer service experience with the launch of an all-new food and beverage program featuring local, fresh, and seasonal selections from renowned chefs, bartenders and vendors. Fans enjoying the game at any one of the arena's over 40 food and beverage stands, restaurants, and clubs will be treated to a diverse array of options ranging from Signature Collection food items such as 'Steamer' hotdogs (as a tribute to Canucks icon Stan Smyl) to locally-sourced seafood, fresh from BC's top producers.

In 2014, the new Loge Club was added on the suite level consisting of 13 semi-private loge boxes within an exclusive club area. Each loge box offers a designated dining table with six theatre style view seats to enjoy the game. Guests also have access to premium food and beverage options showcasing quality ingredients inspired by Executive Chef Robert Bartley and Director of Wine and Beverage Jay Jones.

This season fans at Rogers Arena also have the opportunity to enjoy more wide-open concourse space on levels 100 and 300, allowing for more room to mingle and enjoy the variety of premium food and beverage vendors. Washroom facilities in Rogers Arena also increase by 35% this season with the introduction of additional men's and women's washroom facilities on the level 200 concourse.

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

Rogers Arena is currently in the midst of an expansion and renovation project that upon completion will see the construction of three surrounding towers, offering a variety of new and exciting amenities to the area.

The first tower at the southwestern end of Rogers Arena will include commercial office space and residential rental units starting on the 5th floor. The 26-story building will be completed in early 2015.

The tower's fourth floor is being prepared for future development and is expected to feature a cutting edge sports bar including new premium view seating. It will boast modern AV technology, a DJ mixing tracks and large screens for watching the game, all surrounding the longest bar in Vancouver. This restaurant will feature loge viewing seats into the bowl in addition to exclusive VIP loge boxes, complete with food and beverage service in a private dining area affixed with luxury seats and personal TVs. Once completed this space will also be open to the public on non-event days/times.

The second 31-story South Tower will not be attached to Rogers Arena but will be in close proximity on the South Plaza. The South Tower will include five levels of underground parking, with over 250 residential rental units in addition to fitness and multipurpose facilities. Work commenced on the tower in February of 2014.

The third 28-story East Tower, which will be located above the current Canucks Team Store, will be another mixed-use highrise with both residential rental apartments and office suites. As part of this construction, the current Canucks Team Store will be relocated to a new larger location facing onto Abbott Street. Construction of the East Tower began in the spring of 2014.

TREVOR LINDEN

TREVOR LINDEN

PRESIDENT, HOCKEY OPERATIONS & ALTERNATE GOVERNOR, NHL

Born: April 11, 1970
Birthplace: Medicine Hat, AB
Residence: Vancouver, BC
Family: Wife, Cristina

Trevor Linden joined the Vancouver Canucks front office as President of Hockey Operations & Alternate Governor, NHL, on April 9, 2014. He is one of the most accomplished and celebrated players in team history, with his leadership and community connections rooted in British Columbia for more than two decades.

Linden is responsible for all hockey operations, including the coaching and scouting staffs, player procurement and development, and minor league affiliations and operations. He also serves as Alternate Governor, NHL.

Linden retired as a Canuck on the 20th anniversary of his draft day, June 11, 2008. Following his retirement, Linden continued to give back to the community through the Trevor Linden Foundation. He also demonstrated his business savvy through several real estate developments and the launch of two fitness clubs: Club 16 – Trevor Linden Fitness and Orange Theory Fitness.

Linden left the NHL after 19 seasons, having recorded 867 career points (375-492-867) in 1382 regular season games with the Canucks, Montreal Canadiens, New York Islanders and Washington Capitals. Throughout his career, Linden was a proven playoff performer. In 124 playoff games, he recorded 99 points (34-65-99) and 104 penalty minutes. Of his 124 playoff games, 118 came in a Canucks uniform, highlighted by his 25 points (12-13-25) in 24 games during the Canucks 1994 Stanley Cup run.

Linden served as a player representative beginning in 1990 and was elected President of the National Hockey League Players Association in 1998. He served in this capacity until 2006.

Linden completed his NHL career among the all-time League leaders in a number of statistical categories. He ranks 38th in games played (1382), is tied for 107th in goals scored (375) and ranks 111th in points (867) scored in NHL history.

After being drafted second overall by the Canucks in 1988, Linden enjoyed immediate success, finishing runner-up for the 1989 Calder Trophy and being named The Hockey News Rookie-of-the-Year. In his first eight NHL seasons, Linden recorded 30 or more goals six times.

In 1991/92, Linden, just 21-years-old at the time, was named the Canucks captain, becoming the youngest captain in the NHL.

Linden wore the “C” as Canucks captain for seven seasons, the third longest tenure as captain in club history (behind Stan Smyl and Markus Naslund). After spending his first 10 NHL seasons in Vancouver, Linden went on to play parts of five seasons with the Canadiens, Islanders and Capitals before returning for six more years in a Canucks sweater after he was re-acquired in November of 2001.

During his 19 seasons, Linden was a two-time NHL All-Star (1990/91 and 1991/92) and represented Team Canada at the 1998 Winter Olympic Games in Nagano, Japan. When he retired, he was the Canucks all-time leader in games played (1140), assists (415) and was second in goals (318) and points (733). His 118 games, 34 goals, 61 assists and 95 points in the playoffs remain club records.

Just as impressive as his on-ice accomplishments are his off-ice contributions. In his final NHL season, Linden was named the recipient of the NHL Foundation Player Award which is awarded annually to the NHL player “who applies the core values of hockey—commitment, perseverance and teamwork—to enrich the lives of people in his community”. In 1997, Linden was awarded the King Clancy Memorial Trophy which is given annually to the NHL player who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and who has made a significant humanitarian contribution in his community. In 2011, Linden was also appointed by Governor General David Johnston to the Order of Canada for his cited “ongoing sportsmanship and community engagement as a respected leader both on and off the ice.”

CANUCKS FOR KIDS FUND

ABOUT

The Canucks for Kids Fund dedicates resources to assist charities who support children's health and wellness, foster the development of grassroots hockey, and facilitate and encourage education in British Columbia.

Thanks to the generosity of fans, donors, players, employees and sponsor partners, the Canucks for Kids Fund (CFKF) has granted more than $46 million to charities in British Columbia over the last 29 years.

The core beneficiaries—Canucks Autism Network (CAN), Canuck Place Children's Hospice and BC Children's Hospital Foundation—are providing vital resources and life-saving care to families all across this province.

In a few short years, CAN has become a leading organization that enhances the quality of life for families living with autism. Their mission is to provide year round, innovative and high quality sports, recreational, social and vocational programs for individuals and families living with autism. Additionally, CAN strives to build awareness and capacity through community networks across British Columbia.

Canuck Place Children's Hospice and the Canucks for Kids Fund have shared a significant bond over the history of the two organizations. Since opening its doors in 1995, the Canucks for Kids Fund has granted Canuck Place more than $26 million. Canuck Place offers focused pediatric care for children with life-limiting conditions, as well as facilitated support for their families.

The relationship with BC Children's Hospital goes back to the formative years of the Canucks for Kids Fund. BC Children's Hospital treats the province's sickest and most seriously injured children, combining to help more than 72,000 patients a year. As BC's major treatment, teaching and research facility for child health, the importance of the hospital can be felt province-wide.

VANCOUVER CANUCKS ALUMNI

ABOUT

Despite the fact that the Vancouver Canucks didn't enter the NHL until 1970, the Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association group was conceived in 1952 by the Canucks of the Western Hockey League. The alumni began with Hall of Famers Babe Pratt and Cyclone Taylor, who organized a benefit game for a local amateur player whose wife had become seriously ill. This eventually grew into the BC Hockey Benevolent Association (BCHBA)—a registered non-profit society—designed to assist former players and their families who had fallen on hard times. Since that time, the Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association has expanded in membership and reach. Over the last five decades, the group has raised over $3 million for charities throughout British Columbia through charitable events on and off the ice.

WHO ARE THE CANUCKS ALUMNI?

One of the largest and most active alumni groups in the National Hockey League Alumni Association, the Vancouver Canucks Alumni consists of over 100 members living primarily in the Lower Mainland. The group is unique, in that not just former Vancouver Canucks players are members. The Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association are proud to include former NHL players that never donned a Canucks jersey during their playing careers, such as Bill Ranford, Mark Lofthouse and Gary Nylund as well as those who have made a lasting difference in the success of the Vancouver Canucks franchise like Norm Jewison and the Hall of Fame broadcaster, Jim Robson. The Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association are proudly sponsored by Labatt, Pepsi, Scotiabank, and Rogers.

Each year the Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association travel throughout British Columbia to participate in charitable games and events. Along the way, they've delivered more than their fair share of pies-in-the-face, buckets of water thrown into the opposition benches, assorted mid-game goaltender exchanges and referee bribes as part of their on-ice antics. And they've also played some serious hockey. In exchange for their performances, the BCHBA receives expense money for travel or accommodation (if applicable) plus a modest stipend which goes directly into the scholarship maintenance program. All funds raised as the result of a Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association event are left in the community to benefit minor hockey or other local causes.

CANUCK ALUMNI PARTNERSHIPS:

Over the six decades, the Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association have forged ongoing partnerships with a number of community-based, charitable organizations and foundations such as The Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Vancouver/South Coast BC, BC Cancer Society's "Camp Goodtimes," ALS Canada, Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation, Road Hockey Conquers Cancer, Hockey Helps the Homeless and The Canucks For Kids Fund including its core beneficiaries, Canucks Autism Network, Canuck Place Children's Hospice and BC Children's Hospital Foundation.

Donations to help support these local organizations and campaigns comes not only from the Alumni's fundraising appearances on the ice throughout the province, but from annual, Alumni-sponsored or participant events such as The Canuck Alumni Charity Golf Tournament, The Cyclone Taylor Golf Classic and The Jake Milford Invitational Golf Tournament, among others.

VANCOUVER CANUCKS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS:

The Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association offer a number of scholarships each season to deserving students and minor hockey players in recognition of their academic achievement and commitment to school and community service. Together, Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association Scholarship programs and initiatives have distributed more than $500,000 to deserving students across Canada, enabling them to continue their studies while pursuing their interests in hockey or other athletics-related fields

BCHL Scholarship Program

The first such scholarship program, started in the 1980's by the Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association and guided through its first decades by the NHL Canucks' original captain, Orland Kurtenbach, has grown from providing four, annual, $3,000 scholarships, to now enabling as many as nine young hockey players from the BC Hockey League to attend post-secondary institutions each year. The Scholarship Program, operated in partnership with the BCHL, is now chaired by former Canucks player—now NHL scout—Gerry O'Flaherty. To date, this program has awarded almost $380,000 in scholarships to more than 48 BCHL graduates.

Larry Ashley Scholarship

The Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association initiated the Larry Ashley Scholarship over 10 years ago. Ashley was a longtime athletic trainer of the NHL Canucks and passed away from cancer in 1995. Widely recognized as a leader in his field, Ashley's name now lives on via the Larry Ashley Scholarship Program. Last year the Vancouver Canucks Alumni and the Canadian Athletics Therapist Association (CATA) joined forces to provide scholarship funds of $2,500 per year to academically qualified students pursuing post-secondary studies in the fields of sports medicine and/or athletic training.

Other scholarships offered through the Canucks Alumni include: the Larry Ashley Athletic Training Scholarship, Stan Smyl Scholarship, Orland Kurtenbach Scholarship, Pat Quinn Scholarship, Dennis Kearns Scholarship, Vancouver Canucks Alumni Association Scholarship, Rick Blight Crisis Centre Scholarship Program and Vancouver Canucks Community Service Bursary.

VANCOUVER CANUCKS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

Gerry "Driller" Sillers was born and raised in Saskatoon where he played junior for the Blades with his longtime buddy Bobby Schmutz. He moved west to attend Simon Fraser University and turned pro with the Western League Canucks in 1968. He played four seasons with their AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans, a team for which Don Cherry both played and coached. He also played briefly with Portland of the WHL. Following his playing career, he became an enthusiastic member of the Canucks Alumni organization and in 1989, became its President.

EASTERN CONFERENCE (8-Team Divisions)

Within Conference (Division): 30 games

- 5 games vs two teams (3 Home/2 Away vs one team, 2 Home/3 Away vs one team) AND 4 games vs. five teams (2 Home/2 Away). Teams rotated on a yearly basis.

Within Conference (Non-Division): 24 games

- 3 games vs each team (2 Home/1 Away vs four teams, 1 Home/2 Away vs four teams). Teams rotated on a yearly basis.

Non-Conference: 28 games

- 2 games vs each team (1 Home/1 Away)

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMAT

The top three finishers in each Division qualify for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each Division).

The two additional playoff spots in each Conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each Conference, ranked on the basis of regular season points and regardless of Division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each Divisional Playoff will be determined on the basis of regular season points. The first-place finisher with the highest number of regular season points in the Conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the lowest number of regular season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-highest number of regular season points in the Conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-lowest number of regular season points.

The Playoffs will proceed as follows:

- #1 vs #4 / #2 vs #3—winners play each other for berth in Conference Championship
- Conference Finals—Two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in Conference Championship
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions will meet in Stanley Cup Final.

REGULAR-SEASON SCHEDULE MATRIX

ASSIST

An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touch the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED

A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL

After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL

A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER

A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY KILLING PERCENTAGE

Subtract the total number of power play goals allowed from total number of short-handed situations to get total number of power plays killed. Divide the total number of power plays killed by the total number of short-handed situations.

PLUS/MINUS

A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or short-handed goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or short-handed goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus/minus statistic.

POWER PLAY GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER PLAY PERCENTAGE

Total number of power play goals divided by total number of power play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE

Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORT-HANDED GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for short-handed as for power play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL

If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

SHUTOUT

If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND

If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

WINNING PERCENTAGE

Multiply the total number of games played by two to find the total amount of possible points available then divide by total amount of points obtained.

COACH'S RECORD

A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shutout

In 1998, the Kerrisdale native realized a lifelong dream when he was named only the third full-time play-caller in Canucks history.

"Shorty and Tom" would team together for 12 years, before current partnerships were formed with John Garrett, Dave Tomlinson and Dan Murphy. John is thrilled to be back working with those three, as well as talented friends Mike Whittingham, Greg Shannon, Irfaan Gaffar, Blake Price and Jeff Paterson.

A graduate of the British Columbia Institute of Technology, John spent eight years at Global Sports Page before taking on his current job.
